Prince George March 12. 88

My dear Friend

Inclosed you will receive the sets of Exchange duly signed. I have written to W. Farr on the subject of my Fathers Bonds, if I do not get his answer before I go to Fredericksburg I will then endeavor to settle the matter - probably I may see him myself. The Buttons were of the kind I wanted, ~~except~~ my thanks for them.
From the 1st City Election I will proceed to Richmond, it happens ~~on~~ Thursday week.

My predictions respecting the Election in this County was yesterday verified - The sentiments of the People being decidedly anti-federal left me far behind my opponents - indeed before it came on I had determined against taking a Poll, but some of my Friends persisting in a request that I should do, I was much against my inclinations prevailed on to offer.

I have only time to assure you of the regard & esteem with which I am

Y<sup>r</sup> aff<sup>l</sup> Friend
Ben. Harrison
